: : MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

To qualify as a Student Member of the Interior Design Institute of British Columbia, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be a part or full-time student studying Interior Design at a College or University which offers a certificate, diploma or degree in Interior Design and will ultimately be eligible to become NCIDQ qualified.
- The student Member agrees to adhere to the ethical standards and By-laws of the Institute.

: : BENEFITS

A Student Member is entitled to:

- Receive notice of and attend meetings. Come out, meet your future colleagues and network!
- Receive the newsletter, notices of special events and other relevant communication. Every year we offer continuing education seminars and programs. A good way to find out about advances in the industry.
- Serve on committees. It's fun and a great way to meet new people.
